OTHER ORGANISATIONS

The Soaring Society of South Africa (SSSA) is approved by the South African Civil Aviation Authority (SACAA) as an ATO (Aviation Training Organisation) and as such has a formal Manual of Procedure approved by the SACAA. The Manual of Procedure governs how gliding operates in South Africa.

Website: www.sssa.org.za.

All members of gliding clubs are required to be paid up members of the SSSA as well as the AeroClub of South Africa.

Website: www.aeroclub.org.za.

All recreational licensing is managed in South Africa by Recreational Aviation Administration South Africa (RAASA) on behalf of the SACAA. It is the responsibility of each individual club member to ensure that their affairs with regard to the above (and any other applicable) organisations are in order.

INDEMNITY

I hereby indemnify and hold harmless and blameless, the Eastern Province Gliding Club, its office bearers and employees in respect of any claim of any nature whatsoever brought by myself, my executors, dependants, wife/husband, child/children, relatives or any person who may derive a right to claim in respect to any of the following matters herein contained:

1. Arising from my being taken for a flight by a member of the Eastern Province Gliding Club; or
2. By participating in any activities of any nature whatsoever, under the auspices of the Eastern Province Gliding Club or for any other reason;
3. The above indemnity including any claim arising from the use of any facilities extended to me by virtue of my association with or membership of the Eastern Province Gliding Club.

I hereby acknowledge that:

- (A) I know, understand, appreciate and accept the risk attendant upon flying and that such risk can involve death or injury; and
- (B) In that knowledge and without derogating from the generality of the foregoing general indemnity, I undertake on behalf of myself and my dependants to indemnify, hold harmless and absolve the Eastern Province Gliding Club, its office bearers and employees against and from each and any claim, of any nature whatsoever, including a claim for costs, by myself, my executors, my wife/husband, child/children and/or relative/relatives taking or being taken for a flight either under my instruction or for any reason in any aircraft owned by or operated under the direct control of the club whilst on any aerodrome or whilst myself, my executor, my wife/husband, child/children and/or relative/relatives are on the premises or any hangar or workshop under the control of the club or serving its requirements, no matter whether the damage or claim was caused by negligence of any of the club's agents or servants.

INSURANCE

The club's aircraft are generally NOT insured for full flight risk and should I be the pilot in command of a club aircraft that is damaged due to my negligence, that the club may hold me personally liable for the full cost repairs or replacement of such aircraft. Furthermore, I acknowledge that in all cases, regardless of fault or circumstances that I will be personally responsible for paying any insurance excess or club self-insured excess, which is ever applicable.
